

Safflower

Extremely drought & heat resistant! Carthamus tinctorius

COMPOSITION

Safflower

100%

CHARACTERISTICS

- Fits in all crop rotations (including vegetable production!)
- Compositae family, can be sown longer than other composites!
- Fast establishment, produces high biomass!
- Strong soil structure improvement effect through taproot
- Freezes easily (-3°C) & easy to destroy!
- Captures residual nitrogen, phosphorus & potassium for the following crop
- Limits erosion losses
- Can be perfectly mixed with other green manures
- Honey plant

SOWING INFO

SOWING DEPTH

2 to 3 cm

13 to 15 kg/ha (approx. 30 seeds/m<sup>2</sup>)

July (second half), August