

FLOWERS

Companion flowers against Aphids

MP08821 - Ecosystems - Biodiversity

CHARACTERISTICS

A mixture whose name says it all.

The specially selected flower species repel aphids while remaining a haven for beneficial insects.

Plant height: 30-50 cm

Flowering:

From summer onwards when sown in spring

From spring onwards in subsequent years

Composed of 10 annual and 5 perennial species.

COMPOSITION

American Winter-ress

Barbarea verna

Anise

Pimpinella anisum

Catnip

Nepeta cataria

Coriander

Coriandrum sativum

French Marigold

Tagetes patula

Nasturtium

Tropaeolum majus

Pot marigold

Calendula officinalis

Summer savory

Satureja hortensis

Sweet alyssum

Lobularia maritima